

North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District

LOGO DESIGN CONTEST

Deadline: October 1, 2024

First place winner will receive a $250 prize
AND
their school will receive a $250 donation.

The North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District (NSCRCD) is sponsoring a logo design contest for students in 7th through 12th grades at selected high schools in San Jose. NSCRCD is a local public agency dedicated to the preservation of agricultural lands and the conservation of natural resources in northern Santa Clara County, and our Board is looking for a design that represents our commitment to natural resource conservation and community engagement. All submissions become the property of NSCRCD. See website for complete list of prizes and rules.

Entry form: <https://www.rcdsantaclara.org/district-logo-contest>

North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District

(formerly the Guadalupe-Coyote RCD)

An independent special district of the State of California

---

September 9, 2024

Juan Alcantar, Principal
College Connection Academy
1855 Lucretia Avenue
San Jose CA 95122-3730

Dear Principal Alcantar:

The North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District (NSCRCD) is excited to announce a logo design contest for students in 7th through 12th grades. We would appreciate it if you would publicize the contest on campus so eligible students from your school have an opportunity to enter.

NSCRCD is a local public agency dedicated to the preservation of agricultural lands and the conservation of natural resources in northern Santa Clara County. Our Board is looking for a logo that represents our commitment to natural resource conservation and community engagement, particularly in those communities that are historically underserved. By involving students in this creative endeavor, we believe we can inspire innovative thinking about natural resources and community engagement, foster a deeper connection to our natural surroundings, and empower students to become environmental stewards by taking an active role in helping conserve our natural resources.

The first place winner will receive a $250.00 prize , plus their school will receive a $250 donation. All submissions become the property of the North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District. The complete list of rules and entry form can be found at <https://www.rcdsantaclara.org/district-logo-contest>) I have included a flyer that can be posted or electronically distributed to your teachers and students.

Thank you for your support in promoting environmental education and empowering our youth to become champions of conservation! Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Moreno

Stephanie Moreno
Executive Director
smoreno@gcrd.org

North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District

(formerly the Guadalupe-Coyote RCD)

An independent special district of the State of California

---

September 9, 2024

Elizabeth Cord, Principal
Shirakawa (George, Sr.) Elementary
665 Wool Creek Drive
San Jose CA 95112-2617

Dear Principal Cord:

The North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District (NSCRCD) is excited to announce a logo design contest for students in 7th through 12th grades. We would appreciate it if you would publicize the contest on campus so eligible students from your school have an opportunity to enter.

NSCRCD is a local public agency dedicated to the preservation of agricultural lands and the conservation of natural resources in northern Santa Clara County. Our Board is looking for a logo that represents our commitment to natural resource conservation and community engagement, particularly in those communities that are historically underserved. By involving students in this creative endeavor, we believe we can inspire innovative thinking about natural resources and community engagement, foster a deeper connection to our natural surroundings, and empower students to become environmental stewards by taking an active role in helping conserve our natural resources.

The first place winner will receive a $250 prize, plus their school will receive a $250 donation. All submissions become the property of the North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District. The complete list of rules and entry form can be found at <https://www.rcdsantaclara.org/district-logo-contest>) I have included a flyer that can be posted or electronically distributed to your teachers and students.

Thank you for your support in promoting environmental education and empowering our youth to become champions of conservation! Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Moreno

Stephanie Moreno
Executive Director
smoreno@gcrd.org

North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District

(formerly the Guadalupe-Coyote RCD)

An independent special district of the State of California

---

September 9, 2024

Fallon Housman, Principal
Alpha: Cornerstone Academy Preparatory
1598 Lucretia Avenue
San Jose CA 95122-3817

Dear Principal Housman:

The North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District (NSCRCD) is excited to announce a logo design contest for students in 7th through 12th grades. We would appreciate it if you would publicize the contest on campus so eligible students from your school have an opportunity to enter.

NSCRCD is a local public agency dedicated to the preservation of agricultural lands and the conservation of natural resources in northern Santa Clara County. Our Board is looking for a logo that represents our commitment to natural resource conservation and community engagement, particularly in those communities that are historically underserved. By involving students in this creative endeavor, we believe we can inspire innovative thinking about natural resources and community engagement, foster a deeper connection to our natural surroundings, and empower students to become environmental stewards by taking an active role in helping conserve our natural resources.

The first place winner will receive a $250 prize, plus their school will receive a $250 donation. All submissions become the property of the North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District. The complete list of rules and entry form can be found at <https://www.rcdsantaclara.org/district-logo-contest>) I have included a flyer that can be posted or electronically distributed to your teachers and students.

Thank you for your support in promoting environmental education and empowering our youth to become champions of conservation! Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Moreno

Stephanie Moreno
Executive Director
smoreno@gcrd.org

North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District

(formerly the Guadalupe-Coyote RCD)

An independent special district of the State of California

---

September 9, 2024

John Phung
Luis Valdez Leadership Academy
1855 Lucretia Avenue
San Jose CA 95122-3730

Dear Principal Phung:

The North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District (NSCRCD) is excited to announce a logo design contest for students in 7th through 12th grades. We would appreciate it if you would publicize the contest on campus so eligible students from your school have an opportunity to enter.

NSCRCD is a local public agency dedicated to the preservation of agricultural lands and the conservation of natural resources in northern Santa Clara County. Our Board is looking for a logo that represents our commitment to natural resource conservation and community engagement, particularly in those communities that are historically underserved. By involving students in this creative endeavor, we believe we can inspire innovative thinking about natural resources and community engagement, foster a deeper connection to our natural surroundings, and empower students to become environmental stewards by taking an active role in helping conserve our natural resources.

The first place winner will receive a $250 prize, plus their school will receive a $250 donation. All submissions become the property of the North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District. The complete list of rules and entry form can be found at <https://www.rcdsantaclara.org/district-logo-contest>) I have included a flyer that can be posted or electronically distributed to your teachers and students.

Thank you for your support in promoting environmental education and empowering our youth to become champions of conservation! Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Moreno

Stephanie Moreno
Executive Director
smoreno@gcrd.org

North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District

(formerly the Guadalupe-Coyote RCD)

An independent special district of the State of California

---

September 9, 2024

Mary Pollett, Principal
Yerba Buena High
1855 Lucretia Avenue
San Jose CA 95122-3730

Dear Principal Pollett:

The North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District (NSCRCD) is excited to announce a logo design contest for students in 7th through 12th grades. We would appreciate it if you would publicize the contest on campus so eligible students from your school have an opportunity to enter.

NSCRCD is a local public agency dedicated to the preservation of agricultural lands and the conservation of natural resources in northern Santa Clara County. Our Board is looking for a logo that represents our commitment to natural resource conservation and community engagement, particularly in those communities that are historically underserved. By involving students in this creative endeavor, we believe we can inspire innovative thinking about natural resources and community engagement, foster a deeper connection to our natural surroundings, and empower students to become environmental stewards by taking an active role in helping conserve our natural resources.

The first place winner will receive a $250 prize, plus their school will receive a $250 donation. All submissions become the property of the North Santa Clara Resource Conservation District. The complete list of rules and entry form can be found at <https://www.rcdsantaclara.org/district-logo-contest>) I have included a flyer that can be posted or electronically distributed to your teachers and students.

Thank you for your support in promoting environmental education and empowering our youth to become champions of conservation! Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Moreno

Stephanie Moreno
Executive Director
smoreno@gcrd.org